News Release

Community Information & Referral elects two new members for

Board of Directors

(Phoenix) Community Information and Referral (CIR), a local non-profit recently elected Liz Topete-Stonefield, President, Topete/Stonefield, Inc., and Tim Smith, President, Training To You, to the CIR Board of Directors.

Community Information & Referral (CIR), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, provides FREE 24-hour helpline services to ten Arizona counties, including the greater Phoenix area. Trained specialists receive the calls for help, assess problems, and provide appropriate information and/or referrals to available community resources. Callers can reach the Helpline by calling (602) 263-8856 or, outside of Maricopa County toll free at 1-800-352-3792. Visit us on the web at: www.cir.org to find needed social services.

CI&R is a non-profit, human service agency that has been providing services to the people of Arizona for nearly 40 years. The agency is funded by the Arizona Department of Economic Security, Valley of the Sun United Way, Mesa United Way, The Arizona Republic-Season for Sharing, Cities of Scottsdale, Glendale, and Mesa, corporate and individual contributions, and through directory sales.
